

Gentle Teaching Workshop

3 DAYS: May 21 ~ 22 ~ 23, 2019
at SHARE Foundation

9am - 4pm daily

St. Timothy Center at Sharing Meadows,
6357 N 300 E, LaPorte, Indiana, 46350

Going Strong!

Practical Planning and Applications for a Practice of Gentle Teaching

“There is no single answer... only a direction we need to take.”

-Dr. John McGee

ALL ARE WELCOME to register for the annual Gentle Teaching learning event at SHARE Foundation May 21, 22, 23

in the direction of
GENTLE TEACHING

REGISTRATION ($195)

includes continental breakfast, lunch and snacks for each day. Some assistance is being offered, as needed, so everyone who would like to join us has the best opportunity to do so.

TO REGISTER, contact Bill Harmon wharmon@sharefoundation.org 219.778.2585 (main) or 574.524.0229 (c); *checks and credit cards are accepted.

FOR MORE INFO, contact Mara Hawks mhawks@globe-star.org (c) 334.524.2220

The 3-day workshop will welcome back Dr. Anthony M. McCrovitz (Director of Quality of Life Institute, Inc., and Globe Star), and Maurits Eijendaal from Denmark (President of International Snozelen-MSE Association), a leader and manager of social organizations for more than 35 years; past president of Gentle Teaching International). A foundational understanding of Gentle Teaching will be presented, in its philosophy, practical planning for interactions, and essential applications for mentoring a spirit of gentleness.

In the direction of Gentle Teaching, relationship-building centers each step upon 4 pillars: safe, loved, loving, engaged. This is at the heart of a Gentle Teaching practice.

“Change for the better (quality of life) can occur when one can access their right to self-determination. Mentoring a spirit of gentleness implements learning processes that engage exploration, discovery, and the emergence of one’s unique voice and narrative.

When this is recognized and supported, one is given responsibility for their own life, with the invitation to grow and move beyond limitations.”

~Dr. Anthony M. McCrovitz

PRODUCED BY: in Partnership with:

sharefoundation.org

globe-star.org

qualityoflifeinstitute.org